The Greatest and Foremost

When a lawyer asked Jesus which was the greatest commandment in the law, Jesus answered: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and foremost commandment." The second is like it; "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Matthew 22.37-39).

In the complexities of life, we can lose sight of these two principles which remain part of the New Covenant. When we are wronged, hurt, maligned, persecuted, treated unfairly or neglected by others, we need to remember these two commandments:

Love the Lord your God with all your might.

Love your neighbor as yourself.

We need to carry them in our hearts and minds every day, before we respond to others, as we respond to others, and after we respond to others. So many problems can be avoided if we love the Lord and love others.

Are you looking for a New Year resolution? Try these, and stick to them!

Family News

 Welcome: Jonathan and Danielle Karkosky have made it known to the elders that they would like to worship and work with the church here at Puyallup. Their contact information will be coming soon. Welcome Jonathan and Danielle! We are glad you are here!

 Election of Trustees: As required by state law as a non-profit organization, we must hold annual election of trustees. We will hold the official election of the trustees today, January 9th, at the end of the 11am worship service.

 New Deacons: After much input from the congregation, the elders would like for you to consider the following three men as deacons; Jeff Nighswonger, Graham Milligan and Bill Staggs. Each of these men has expressed a willingness to serve as a deacon and are or have worked in service to this congregation. We thank them for their willingness to grow in their service to the Lord. If anyone knows of any scriptural reason why these men should not serve as deacons, please let the elders know by the January 9th.

 Friday Night Alive Teens: Teens, please mark your calendars for the next Friday Night Alive on Friday, January 14th, 6:00 pm at the building.
