The Cherished Cross?

The things which are important to us we cherish. Old photos, baby clothes, awards, antiques, memories. We think on the things we cherish often. Sometimes we even daydream and lose complete track of time.

Jesus was despised and rejected of men, and we did not esteem Him (Isaiah 53:3). The Roman cross was an instrument of intimidation, torture, excruciating pain, and death. And yet we sing:

*"On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
The emblem of suffering and shame;
And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain.
So I'll cherish the old rugged cross,
Till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross,
And exchange it someday for a crown."*

Why would we cherish, love, and cling to such a thing as the cross? When we recognize our own sinfulness (Romans 3:23; Isaiah 64:6) and inability to do anything to remove ourselves from this death-deserving state (Romans 6:23), where else can we go? To whom can we turn?

Our sins cost our heavenly Father the life of His only begotten Son. How important is that to you? Do you cherish the cross?

Thank You: To the leadership and the congregation at Puyallup church of Christ, Dear Ones,

As I think about the service at your church Saturday, honoring and remembering my dear son, I am deeply grateful. A heartfelt "thank you" to those who attended and participated, from my family and me. The sharing was so meaningful to me, plus the messages from the pulpit, and that lovely a cappella singing truly warms the soul. God's Spirit is working beautifully through you, and I thank Him for you. In Him,
Carol Moller
