Reading Your Bible

This came across my desk some time ago...food for thought.

"Top Ten" signs you may not be reading your Bible enough:

10) The preacher announces the sermon is from Galatians...and you check the table of contents.

9) You think Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had a few hit songs during the 60's.

8) You open to the Gospel of Luke and a WWII savings bond falls out.

7) Your favorite Old Testament patriarch is Hercules.

6) You become frustrated because Charlton Heston is not listed in either the concordance or the table of contents.

5) Your favorite Bible verse is "Cleanliness is next to godliness."

4) Catching the kids reading The Song of Solomon, you demand, "Who gave you this stuff?!"

3) You think the Minor Prophets were under-aged preachers.

2) You keep falling for it every time the preacher tells you to turn to First Condominiums.

Cont'd ▶

And the number one sign you may not be reading your Bible enough:

1) The kids keep asking too many questions about your usual bedtime story: "Jonah the shepherd boy and his ark of many colors."

This is a cute and funny example and reminder about the importance of Bible reading. However, the reality is that most of us spend precious little time reading and studying from God's word. May we, like the psalmist, gladly proclaim, "Oh how I love your law! It is my meditation all the day." (Psalm 119:97).

Come, let us learn and grow together.
