Not One Member, But Many

"For as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is Christ. For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body - whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free - and have all been made to drink into one Spirit. For in fact the body is not one member but many." - I Corinthians 12:12-14

As with the physical body, the spiritual body of Christ is composed of many members having a variety of functions and abilities. To the world, and perhaps even to some extent in the church, some members are more important than others. This is just not the case. Each and every member is critical to the proper functioning of the body.

Yet, this misconception is not unique to our day and culture. Paul dealt with it in the first century in Corinth. In verses 15-31, he deals with members who either felt they were superior to others, or members who felt they were inferior to others.

An important lesson for us to learn is that various members of the body of Christ have different talents and abilities. No members are unimportant – all are not only needed, but are necessary for the body to function properly.

We have become one body through Christ. That which binds us is stronger than that which divides us.

Come, let us learn and grow together.

Mark
