February 12, 2023

The Gift of Grace

"There is no such thing as a free lunch" is a popular saying which illustrates the truth that you can't get something for nothing. When something appears to be free we often look for the small print to understand the hidden costs because we have come to expect that nothing is really free.

While this world looks to take all it can from us, God offers us a gift beyond compare. He offers us His unmerited favor or grace when we choose to follow Jesus. We could never earn God's favor on our own because of our sin, but God saves us because He loves us more than we can understand. "For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast" (Eph. 2:8-9, NASB).

While receiving this grace requires accepting God's gift through obeying Jesus, it is far beyond what we could ever earn.

God offers us the best thing we could ever receive – His unmerited favor. Let's be thankful for what He offers and accept what He gives through living a lifestyle of obedience to Him.
