City Lights

We know their stories. The Laodicean Christians had become complacent and lukewarm. In Pergamum, some of God's people had allowed greed to infect their lives. The list goes on.

What might rekindle dedication and faithfulness among God's people? What might motivate those who claim to serve God to shine like stars in the darkness of their cities?

The answer provided in Revelation is an old one. We encounter it first in the Old Testament.

In the eighth century B.C., God revealed part of his glory and grandeur to a man called Isaiah. As Isaiah perceived the sovereign Lord as King accompanied by powerful seraphs proclaiming God's holiness, Isaiah's perception of his life and those around him forever changed.

"Too bad for me! I am ruined! For my lips are contaminated by sin, and I live among people whose lips are contaminated by sin. My eyes have beheld the King, the LORD Almighty." (Isaiah 6:5). After God cleansed Isaiah from his sin, Isaiah volunteered to be God's light to the cities of Judea.

To motivate Christians living within the cities of Asia Minor, God enabled John to gain a glimpse into heaven's throne room. John described for those early urban Christians what he saw upon entering heaven. Flashes of lightning and peals of thunder surrounded the enthroned one. Like Isaiah, John beheld powerful living creatures proclaiming,

"Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was and who is, and who is still to come!" (Revelation 4:8).

Catching even a glimpse of our God can change everything. Seeing ourselves, our lives, our communities in the light of God's grandeur encourages us to reevaluate our decisions, priorities, lifestyles and worship.

When God desired to motivate his people toward living as shining lights in a crooked and perverse society, what did he do? Well, one answer is that God reminded his people who he was, is and will be. Used by permission from Forthright Magazine (forthright.net). Copyright © 2015 BarryNewton

Family News

My Greater Purpose Seminar: The leadership here would like to give everyone the opportunity to take part in this seminar. There will be the opportunity for a make-up seminar. If you signed up for the seminar and didn't get to participate and would still like to take part in it or if you are curious and have questions please see Robert Henton and Bob Stump and let them know. They will try to set up another seminar to accommodate everyone.

Thank You: Thank you Church! Your generosity is so wonderful. We collected $1,015.00 for CJ Wilson to help with his mission trip to Russia. If you didn't get the opportunity to contribute and would like to do so, please give your money to Hugh Kile.

Family News (cont'd)

Recharge Excellence Conference: The 5th Annual Recharge Excellence Conference will be March 10th-13th in Anaheim, CA. This isn't a lectureship. It is a practical workshop on how to dig deeper into the Word of God and how to practically apply it today. It's their goal to fuel you to do more for Him...every day. The Ripon church of Christ is hosting this conference. More information can be found in the flyer on the bulletin board or you can go to their website www.RechargeMe.org.

Caretakers Needed: Delano Bay Christian Camp is looking for caretakers for the camp. If you are interested, more information can be found in a letter posted on the foyer bulletin board.

Thank You: Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Thank you so much for the love shown to both Linda and myself during her battle with cancer. Your prayers, cards, messages of love and encouragement were greatly appreciated and needed. Thank you to all who came to the graveside service and especially to those who helped with the expenses. I won't forget your love and care. Your brother in Christ, Roger
