Me... or Him?

We live in a “me, myself, and I” saturated culture. Advertisers entice us with such slogans as, “Have it Your Way,” “Get Your own Bag,” “No rules, Just Right,” and “Obey Your Thirst.” These types of sayings appeal to a society more and more self-centered. All facets of life are affected by this mentality, and unfortunately, the Lord’s church has found this mindset worthy of consideration.

Some have determined for themselves how and upon what terms their relationship with God will be established. He has given us the freedom to choose between the wide gate and the narrow gate (Matthew 7:13-14), but he never gave us the right to dictate the terms of our salvation (Luke 9:23-26).

Many are now making worship and Christian life to be about them and not God. We hear such things as, “God wouldn’t want me to be unhappy,” “My spiritual needs aren't being met," "I want to be a part of a church that does _____," and "I don't feel like the church is relevant." Please take notice of the subject of each of these statements - it's about me, not Him.

Consider for a moment the sixty-six books of the Bible - Where do we find the authority to focus on ourselves in order to be pleasing and acceptable to God? To whom are we to direct our religious homage and devotion (worship)? To ourselves or God? (Matthew 4:10; John 4:21-24). To whom are we to serve and consider above ourselves? Is it not God and others? (Matthew 22:37-40).

The Bible clearly teaches the concept of the church [repentant, baptized believers (Acts 2:38, 41, 47)] being the body of Christ (I Corinthians 12:12-27; Romans 12:4-5) with Christ Himself as its Head (Ephesians 1:22-23; Colossians 1:18). In a healthy, normal body, the head determines how the rest of the body functions. Are we going to dictate to the Head what or how we will function?

Come, let us learn and grow together.

Mark

Family News

 Welcome: Nick and Carla Gleim have made it known to the elders that they would like to worship and work with the church here in Puyallup. They have a ten week old son, Cole. Their contact information will be coming soon. Welcome to Puyallup Gleim family! We are glad you are here!

Also, Darin and Michelle McPhail have made it known to the elders that they would like to worship and work with the church here in Puyallup. Their contact information will be coming soon. Welcome to Puyallup Darin and Michelle! We are glad you are here!

 Board of Trustees Election: In order to fulfill state requirements for non-profit status, there will be a short meeting today after morning worship to elect our board of trustees.

Family News (cont'd)

 SIBI Northwest Extension School: The SIBI Thursday evening class started February 13th (7 pm). ***It's not too late to join in on this class. Mark Jamieson will be teaching from 1 Corinthians. You can participate by taking this course from your home online via the Internet on a computer/device or by cell phone or you can take the course in person at the SIBI building (downstairs' classroom). There are brochures providing more information and registration on the shelf by the foyer bulletin board. Please see Bob Stump if you have any questions.

 Yamhill Men's Retreat: The 2020 Camp Yamhill Men's Retreat will be March 12th-14th. The theme is "Warrior Weekend: Following God and Leading Others." More information and registration can be found at www.campyamhill.org. There is a price break if you register before February 28th.

 Bake Potato Feed & Game Night: The annual bake potato feed will be Saturday, March 21st, 5:00 pm at the building. There is a sign up sheet on the foyer bulletin board to sign up for food to bring. Don't forget to bring your favorite board games as well.

 Needed: We are in need of large umbrellas to be used in escorting our sisters with children and/or our senior sisters. Please give your umbrella donations to Bryant Zakem or Denny Collins.
