The Importance of "Today"

"LORD, make me to know my end, and what is the measure of my days, that I may know how frail I am."
- Psalm 39:4

The importance of "today" can never be overstated. Consider the following poem by Nixon Waterman:

TODAY IS THE DAY

What Have You Done Today?

We shall do much in the years to come,
But what have we done today?
We shall give our gold in princely sum,
But what have we done today?

We shall lift the heart and shall dry the tear,
We shall plant a hope in the place of fear,
We shall speak the words of love and cheer;
But what did we speak today?

We shall reap such joys in the by and by,
But what have we sown today?
We shall build mansions up in the sky,
But what have we built today?

Oh, how sweet it is in fond dreams to bask,
 But right here and now we must do our task.
 Yes, this is the thing that our souls must ask,
 Just what have we done today?

If you are reading this, today is the only day you can know you will have. If you knew today was your last, how would you live it differently? Live that way today and every day!

Come, let us learn and grow together.

 Bible Bowl: The Olympia church of Christ will be hosting a Bible Bowl for youth, grades 4th-12th, Saturday, March 19, 2016. The Gospel of Matthew will be the text for this Bible Bowl. There will be two sections, one for pre-teens (grades 4-6) the other for teens (grades 7-12). Puyallup has formed teams and are studying hard for this event. They will meet every Friday night, 6:00 pm, at the building to prepare for the Bible Bowl.

After the Bible Bowl we will go back to meeting in our homes. The next singing will be Friday, March 4th, 7:00 pm. You can come early and encourage the Bible Bowl participants.

 Used Eyeglasses: Our thanks to those of you who generously gave your used eyeglasses to help the many in Africa who need them. We packed 40 pairs to send this time. We are still collecting them if you wish to help out with this worthwhile cause. In Christian Love, Lucy Shaffer and Barbara Clark.

How Do You Spell Love?

A class of little children was learning to spell. They spelled a number of words such as cat, dog, and cow. After each word they were asked to imitate the sound that the animal makes. When Mary was asked to spell love, she didn't stop to spell the word but ran and threw her arms around the teacher's neck and kissed her on the cheek. "We spell love this way, it is the best way." — Bulletin Digest (June 2008)
