Used for His Glory

How did you bless someone this week? I have heard a couple of people talk about what they wanted to do with the money they left with last Sunday and we were all blessed by our brother Jay sharing with us his, as he called it, "blessing experience". If you haven't read that, go back to your inbox and look for an email from Bob Sallee attached to the "Missing, Visitors, and Prayer Request" list and read his story.

After reading Jay's email it got me thinking. I must admit that in the past I have been extremely skeptical and maybe even callous toward those who would ask for that dollar or two because their car "broke" down. But looking back on these many years I can see how God has been slowly but surely helping me see people like this not as individuals to be avoided but opportunities to show His mercy and love.

I used to hate carrying cash. Every time I did, and I do mean EVERY TIME, I was found out by someone who just so happened to be in need of my cash more than I was. It got so bad I remember complaining to my wife about it. I literally knew that when I stuck a five or a ten dollar bill or on the good days a twenty into my pocket I would be faced with the question of will I or won't I. Do I believe this person's story, one that I am sure I have heard before and oh, by the way they look oddly familiar like I have given them money before?

Over and over again that happened. After a certain period of time I figured this was not going to change so I began to approach it a little differently. As I stuck the bill in my pocket I wondered who it would be that I would meet that day. Who will I be able to help and share with them why I am willing to help at all, turning a cynical man into one who is learning to be ready for God to use him for His glory?

Are you ready to be used for His glory?

Robert
