God is in Control

Life is difficult sometimes. At times it is chaotic and we wonder why things happen the way they do. We can especially feel this way when we look at what is being reported in the news and the moral confusion going on in our culture today.

When things seem to be spinning out of control, it helps to remember that God is in control. When Israel was oppressed by their enemies time and time again in the book of Judges, God was in control. When they were later taken into captivity for their idolatry, violence, and immorality, God was in control. He was using these other nations to judge His people in order to call them back to Himself. His desire has always been for His people to be faithful and in fellowship with Him. He does all of this because He wants as many people to be saved as possible.

As our world seems to get more chaotic and confused by the day, let's remember that God is in control. In the midst of all that goes on in our society, let's look to His word as the standard and hold to Him in faithfulness knowing that He loves us and wants us to be with Him forever.
