God is in Control of the Future

There seems to be increasing worry and stress in our society today. As we observe what is going on morally in our nation, we can get worried about the future and especially what the world will be like for the next generation.

King Nebuchadnezzar had a dream that concerned him so much that he couldn't go back to sleep. When his wise men and magicians could not interpret it, he became upset until Daniel was able to tell him what it meant. Because of the ability God gave him, Daniel foretold roughly 500 years of history before it happened in telling of the future Medo-Persian, Grecian, and Roman Empires. He also foretold the coming of the kingdom of God (Dan. 2:24-49). This was at a time when the Jews were likely worried about their future as they were under the control of the Babylonian king.

The future appears scary when we focus on the world around us. When we focus on God, we can find a great deal of comfort. He is in control of what happens, He is still on the throne, and He already knows what is going to happen in the coming years. While we may not know what is going to happen tomorrow, we do know the one who is sovereign over tomorrow.

Tommy

But He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness."
2 Corinthians 12:9
