Because He Lives

The world recognizes this day as Easter Sunday. Many look forward to this day because of what it represents. However, the appreciation for this day is lost on most for the other 364 days a year. Because of what occurred on that "Resurrection Sunday," we have blessing beyond our wildest imaginations.

Because Jesus was raised, I am not condemned – I have been justified. As a penitent, baptized believer, I am in Christ. “There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit” (Romans 8:1).

Because Jesus lives, I have been made holy – I am sanctified. I am no longer a slave to sin, but am a new creation – one who has been “set apart” for good works (Romans 6:16-22; II Corinthians 5:17; Ephesians 2:8-10). “...that just as Christ was raised from the dead to the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life” (Romans 6:4).

Because Jesus' tomb is empty, I know that one day my tomb will be empty. My corruptible body will one day put on incorruption and I shall forever be with the Lord (I Corinthians 15:53-54; I Thessalonians 4:17). "O Death where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory?" (I Corinthians 15:55).

"But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ" – I Corinthians 15:57.

Come, let us learn and grow together.
