The Way of the Cross

Being a Christian doesn't just mean believing Jesus provides a way to be forgiven. It also means believing Jesus has ushered in a new era in human existence; the era of heaven's reign.

This is a reign which will see the end of every other kingdom, but will itself never come to an end (Daniel 2:44). Those of us living under heaven's reign will be seen as living backwards lives by those who have given their allegiance to other kingdoms.

Citizens of Jesus' kingdom know they will only find their life through losing it (Luke 9:24). They know it is through meekness that they will inherit the earth (Matthew 5:5). They know that persecution is actually blessedness (Matthew 5:10-12).

The Gospel teaches us that those who refuse to retaliate, no matter what is done to them, will ultimately come out on top. It teaches us that those who love, even if it costs them their life, will actually live forever.

This is the power of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. This is our hope. This is why we can joyfully endure.

These things only make sense if Jesus really has ushered in a new era in human existence.
