God Takes Care of His People

Have you ever gotten in trouble for doing the right thing? We even have a common saying that "no good deed goes unpunished." While we don't like to think of such a scenario, this kind of thing happens from time to time.

We read of this happening on several occasions in scripture. Joseph was thrown into prison for refusing to commit sexual immorality, Elijah was under threat from Jezebel because of the death of the prophets of Baal, and Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were thrown into the furnace for refusing to commit idolatry. When Nebuchadnezzar set up a huge golden statue, he commanded everyone to worship it under threat of death. As faithful Jews, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego refused and were turned in by those who saw. They demonstrated great courage and faithfulness in their answer to the enraged king of Babylon. They were confident that God would protect them, but stated that "even if he does not, we want you to know, Your Majesty, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up" (Dan. 3:18, NIV).

We sometimes find ourselves in situations where doing the right thing can turn people against us. By just agreeing with the Bible about sin, we can be labeled as hateful by many who promote and celebrate immorality. We can take comfort knowing that nothing is hidden from God. Even though He may not miraculously save us from physical danger, He will judge righteously, and His faithful people will be vindicated.
