We Saw Thee Not

As we continue a series from the Epistle to the Philippians titled, "Reasons to Rejoice," we are connecting to each of these lessons the lyrics to a hymn.

"We saw Thee not when Thou didst come to this poor world of sin and death;
Nor yet beheld Thy cottage home, in that despised Nazareth;
But we believe Thy footsteps trod its street and plains, Thou Son of God;
But we believe Thy footsteps trod its street and plains, Thou Son of God.

We saw Thee not when lifted high, amid that wild and savage crew;
Nor heard we that imploring cry, 'Forgive they know not what they do!'

But we believe the deed was done, that shook the earth and veiled the sun;
But we believe the deed was done, that shook the earth and veiled the sun.

We gazed not in the open tomb, where once Thy mangled body lay;
Nor saw Thee in that 'upper room,' nor met Thee on the open way;
But we believe that angels said, 'Why seek the living with the dead?'
But we believe that angels said, 'Why seek the living with the dead?'

We walked not with the chosen few, who saw Thee from the earth ascend;
Who raised to heav'n their wond'ring view, then low to earth all prostrate bend;
But we believe that human eyes beheld that journey to the skies,
But we believe that human eyes beheld that journey to the skies."

Anne Richter, 1834

Today we examine "Rejoicing in the Power of the Resurrection."
Come, let us learn and grow together.

Mark
