The Pearly White City

We take a break from the series from the Epistle to the Philippians titled, "Reasons to Rejoice," but would like to continue with connecting today's lesson to the lyrics of a hymn; the favorite of my mentor and friend, brother Tom Holland.

"There's a holy and beautiful city, whose builder and ruler is God;

John saw it descending from heaven, when Patmos, in exile, he trod;

Its high, massive wall is of jasper, the city itself is pure gold;
And when my frail tent here is folded, mine eyes shall its glory behold.

No sin is allowed in that city, and nothing defiling nor mean;

No pain and no sickness can enter, no cape on the doorknob is seen;
Earth's sorrows and cares are forgotten, no tempter is there to annoy;
No parting words ever are spoken, there's nothing to hurt and destroy.

No heartaches are known in that city, no tears ever moisten the eye;
There's no disappointments in heaven, no envy and strife in the sky;
The saints are all sanctified wholly, they live in sweet harmony there;
My heart is now set on that city, and someday its blessing I'll share.

(chorus)

In that bright city, pearly white city, I have a mansion, a robe, and a crown;
Now I am watching, waiting and longing, for the white city John saw coming down."

Arthur F. Ingler, 1902

Today we examine "How Will You Be Remembered?"
Come, let us learn and grow together.
