Jerrie Barber

Jerrie grew up in Centerville, Tennessee, graduating from Hickman County High School in 1963. He attended Freed-Hardeman University, receiving an A.A. and a Third-Year Certificate in Bible in 1966, and received a B.A. in Bible from Lipscomb University in June, 1967.

While at FHU, he met Gail Champion, who was raised at Childhaven in Cullman, Alabama. They were married August 18, 1964, and have two children, six grandchildren, and two great-grandsons.

Jerrie has served as a full-time and interim gospel preacher in Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia, Indiana, and Missouri. His current New Shepherds Orientation workshops and blog are designed to help elders to grow and be revitalized in their service to the kingdom. He also served as co-leader of more than thirty Leadership Dynamic for Dynamic Leaders workshops between 1986–2006. Additionally, he and Gail have participated in Basic Education from the Interim Ministry Network in 1998 and 1999, the Post Graduate Seminar in Family Emotional Process at The Center for Family Process in Bethesda, Maryland, in 2001-2002, and the Coaching with Excellence workshop with Dan Miller, January 2014, where they learned principles in helping others grow and develop according to their opportunities and personalities.

Among their hobbies are this: Gail and Jerrie have participated in and have been practicing ventriloquism since 1955. He does several programs each year for schools, teacher appreciation banquets, and golden age banquets. Jerrie has also been running since 1969, and has completed the Country Music Marathon 2004, 2005, 2006. He has been running barefoot since the Spring of 2010, and has completed four half marathons barefoot. He also enjoys riding a one-speed cruiser bike, completing eight century rides on the Natchez Trace.
