The Eyes of Faith are on Jesus

"Keep your eye on the ball" is commonly said as someone learns to hit a baseball. The more one focuses on the ball, the more likely they are to hit it. This phrase is used metaphorically in a number of other situations as well to make the point that our focus has to be fixed on our goals if we are to achieve them.

Hebrews 12:1-3 tells us that in order to live faithfully we must keep our eyes on Jesus. For the Christians who were in danger of falling away from the faith, the author tells them to "consider him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart" (Heb. 12:3 NIV). The key to achieving our goals of staying out of sin and remaining faithful to Christ in spite of difficulty lies in where we focus our attention.

There are many things today that compete for our attention. Some are important, and some are not. We have to be careful to prioritize focusing on those things that line up with our goals – both for this life and for eternity. If we are to spend eternity with Christ, we have to keep our eyes on Him.
