Set the Right Course

When I realized that I, a minister of the gospel of Christ, am not the one who sets the direction for the church, it was the most liberating feeling I've ever experienced as a spiritual leader.

When I realize that they, the elders within the church, are not the ones who set the direction for the church, it was one of the most uplifting highs.

When I actually acknowledged as a leader within the church that it is Jesus, the Christ, the Son of the living God, who sets the direction for the church, I rejoiced.

Why? Because if we, as leaders in the church, haven't acknowledged this outwardly, in word, in deed, or in person, and have left it simply to assumption, it is very easy to think you are doing one thing when, in all reality, you are doing a completely different one. It is very easy to assume Jesus is in control while we are the ones deciding everything.

Say what needs to be said, sweet church!

Jesus is Lord, King, and Savior. It is He who sets the direction for the church, not we.

Jesus said, "Go into all the world..."

Time to go, sweet church!
