FINDING OURSELVES!

For many, everything is about themselves; spending a lifetime trying to find themselves, please themselves, and fulfill themselves. They make plans, but how do those plans fit with God's? They have hopes, but how do those hopes fit with God's desires? They make a life, but how does that life parallel the life God created and is able to sustain?

As Paul was in the midst of the Areopagus at Athens – when given an opportunity to speak about the God Who was unknown to them – among what Paul stated is . . .

“(26) And he made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined allotted periods and the boundaries of their dwelling place, (27) that they should seek God, and perhaps feel their way toward him and find him. Yet he is actually not far from each one of us, (28) for In him we live and move and have our being”; as even some of your own poets have said, For we are indeed his offspring” (Acts 17:26-28, ESV).

People can be so close and yet so far, simply because of where the focus has been placed. Though God remains within reach, many distance themselves from Him in their own pursuit of life; not acknowledging the One Who is the Creator and Sustainer of it! (note 17:24-25). How many focus on themselves as if they are of their own origin, rather than recognizing they are the offspring of God and that it is actually in Him that they have their very being?

In a very real sense, we can only find ourselves by finding God and rightfully acknowledging our connection to Him.

Jesus exhorted. . .

“(24) Then Jesus told his disciples, ‘If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. (25) For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it’” (Matthew 16:24-25, ESV).

May we recognize that in losing ourselves in finding God is the manner in which our life is truly found; life both abundantly now (John 10:10) and for an eternity to come. Our greatest blessings are found through continually identifying our life with God and His Sovereign Will!

Have a great day EXPERIENCING THE LIFE OF KNOWING GOD!
