Our Highest Goal

Why do we do what we do? What are we trying to achieve in life? These are questions that are deserving of our attention, but are often given little or no thought. Many make decisions based on immediate desires rather than long term goals unfortunately.

These are questions that are especially important spiritually. It is so easy to get caught up in the day to day and forget that our ultimate goal is to be with the Lord after this life. David addresses this specifically in pondering what it takes to have this kind of fellowship with God. "Lord, who may dwell in your sacred tent? Who may live on your holy mountain?" (Ps. 15:1). He goes on to answer the question by stating fellowship with God is for those who do what is right, keep their word, and control what they say.

The kind of people God is looking for is not hard to understand, but is often hard to practice when others do not treat us the same way. As we focus on the Lord and being with Him one day, it will help us to live as He tells us to even when others do not do the same.
