Godliness

As we ascend the pyramid of the Christian graces found in II Peter 1:5-7, we find ourselves faced with adding to our faith godliness. Many of us have a vague idea of what godliness is, be probably cannot arrive at a concrete definition of the word or concept.

Godliness is a pious or reverent heart toward God. In other words, it is the recognition of the holiness of God and the respect He deserves. It is this characteristic of God that forces us to acknowledge our own sinfulness and our need for salvation.

Our attitude toward God is very important in how we approach Him in our worship, in our Christian work, and in how we treat others. Because God is holy, because God is to be given the utmost respect and honor, we do not dictate to Him what we will do and not do in our worship, work, and treatment of others.

“God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth” (John 4:24). “For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them” (Ephesians 2:10). “If someone says, ‘I love God,’ and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?” (1 John 4:20).

Come, let us learn and grow together.
