A Positive Way of Seeing the World

Sometimes I just want it to stop. Talk of COVID, looting, brutality. I lose my way. I become convinced that this “new normal” is real life.

Then I meet an 87-year old who talks of living through polio, diphtheria, Vietnam protests, and yet is still enchanted with life.

He seemed surprised when I said that 2020 must be especially challenging for him. “No,” he said slowly, looking me straight in the eyes. “I learned a long time ago to not see the world through the printed headlines – I see the world through the people that surround me. I see the world with the realization that we love big. Therefore, I just choose to write my own headlines:

- Husband Loves Wife Today
- Family Drops Everything to Come to Grandma's Bedside
(and patting my hand)
- Old Man makes New Friend"

His words collide with my worries, freeing them from the tether I had been holding tight. They float away. I am left with a renewed spirit and a new way to write my own headlines.
