Elders in Jesus' Church

"This is a faithful saying: If a man desires the position of a bishop, he desires a good work." - I Timothy 3:1

Last Sunday, we began looking into the leadership in the local congregation, by examining Peter's exhortation to fellow elders. Today, we examine the qualifications and characteristics of those who serve in this capacity. Their service, as well as all those who have served in this capacity, is invaluable to the proper functioning of the body of Christ.

Theirs is an awesome responsibility in overseeing (the definition of the word 'bishop') and shepherding the flock which the Lord has placed in their care (Acts 20:28). It is a difficult, and at times, a thankless task. Many hours are spent in assessing, addressing, and praying for specific needs in the congregation. The overwhelming majority of what they do goes unseen by their sheep. However, the reward for those who serve faithfully in this capacity is glorious (I Peter 5:4).

While they serve as our shepherds and overseers, we are not excused from major responsibilities. Our indebtedness to their service should prompt us to assist in making the elders' work a joyous one (Hebrews 13:17).

Let us continually pray for these men, individually and collectively, that they have may have God's strength to carry out this most important work.
