Heading in the Right Direction

The elders, deacons, and ministers met a couple of weeks ago for two days to discuss the state of the church in Puyallup, and to plan for the upcoming year. By all accounts, this was a great meeting.

We took time to discuss the things that we got right this past year, or that are going in the right direction. Among the many things were:

- Organization of the education ministry
- Installation and application of leadership
- A common goal and direction for the church
- Relieving the elders of some work
- Organization and flow of worship
- Involvement of children in the life and work of the church

- Success in expanding the body of believers
- Awareness and implementation of the surveys
- Deacon “buy-in” to the vision of the church
- Building program

There is much for which to be excited, and even more to be accomplished. As the church, we are never “there;” we are constantly on a journey of growth and excellence. Until the time of our departure from this earth, there remains a time for every season on heaven (Ecclesiastes 3:1-8),

“Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly, abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.” – Ephesians 3:20-21
