God's Encouragement

I Kings 19:1-9

Bible Thought: "What then shall we say of these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31).

Many years ago in Ireland when things would get us down, when circumstances of life would make us feel like Moses, Jonah, and Elijah, we would ask God to come soon and end it all. A dear sister would grin and say, "If God be for us..." How right she always was in her cheery rebuke. Light verses darkness, God verses our impediments. Why should we fear. If the spirit of God leads us, then the apparently invincible obstacle will crumble away into dust.

We are afraid of the masses. Size frightens us. We are intimidated by numbers. But the quiet, all-powerful presence of our God gives us the encouragement we need. We are overwhelmed by the tempest, earthquake, and fire. However, the Almighty hides in the "still, small voice," in "the sound of a gentle stillness." If we hide ourselves in His fellowship, we will find encouragement. We will be more than able to overcome the fierce threatening of the embattled hosts.

A Prayer for the Week: Our God who has helped us in ages past continue to be our strength and guide in the future. Help us to trust you. In Christ, Amen.

Be of sober spirit, be on the alert. Your adversary, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. But resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same experiences of suffering are being accomplished by your brethren who are in the world. 1 Peter 5:8-9
