Campaign Kick Off

The beginning of our 40 Days of Prayer has been a great blessing. The thoughts from Terri Williamson, Mike and Sarah Farnsworth, John Bailey, Kay Fishback, and Brayden Holland have been so encouraging and inspiring! I find myself each day looking forward to the next!

As we draw closer to God through His Son and our Savior by reading, contemplating, and praying, we are bound to reflect on our own spiritual condition. As I am sure we all recognize, each of us has room to grow and to improve in our Christian walk. True Christian living is a life of self-denial and sacrifice (Luke 9:23-25). This covers every aspect of our lives, spiritually and materially.

What does sacrifice look like when it comes to our material means? From the beginning, God has required the giving of something of real value back to Him as a token of our love and trust in Him. The giving of firstfruits should be a tremendous trust in God to provide more. To give Him seconds, thirds, or fourths, would only show reliance upon self and placing God as an afterthought in our lives.

The Hebrew writer declares that we are under a better covenant, provided by a better sacrifice, and based on better promises (7:22, 8:6, 9:23). Having recognized these things, shouldn't our sacrifices to Him be "better?"

The 40 Day Prayer journey upon which we have embarked is designed to help us grow closer to God, closer to each other, and be better prepared to help others see Jesus living in us. Likewise, it is designed to cause us to reflect on the greatness of His gifts and how we can best use them to bring glory to His name.

"Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly, abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen." – Ephesians 3:20-21
