Seven Signs of Genuine Repentance

“I tell you, no; but unless you repent you will all likewise perish.” – Luke 13:3, 5

There are seven signs that indicate the offender is genuinely repentant:

1. Accepts full responsibility for his or her actions. (Instead of: “Since you think I’ve done something wrong...” or “If I have done anything to offend you...”).
2. Welcomes accountability from others.
3. Does not continue in the hurtful behavior or anything associated with it.
4. Does not have a defensive attitude about being wrong.
5. Does not dismiss or downplay the hurtful behavior.
6. Does not resent doubts about their sincerity or the need to demonstrate sincerity – especially in cases involving repeated offenses.
7. Makes restitution where necessary.
